PITTSFIELD — The MassHire Berkshire Workforce Board welcomed two community leaders to its board of directors at its quarterly meeting on Sept. 3.

The new board members are Hara Charlier, president of Berkshire Community College, and Justin Scaduto, director of engineering for the Strategic Mission Systems business area at General Dynamics Mission Systems.

The nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization's board members are appointed by Mayor Peter Marchetti, who serves as the chief elected official for the Berkshire Workforce Area.
