

Berkshire Eagle

MassHire Berkshire Workforce Board's 2022 Youth Ambassador Teagan Far, left, with the board's youth specialist, Kat Toomey

PITTSFIELD — The MassHire Berkshire Workforce Board elected officers for fiscal 2023 and presented several awards recently at its annual meeting, which took place via Zoom.

The elected officers include: Eva Sheridan, of Jane Iredale Mineral Cosmetics; president; Michael Taylor, city of Pittsfield, vice president; Albert Ingegni III, BCHS-Salisbury Estates, vice president; Doug McNally, Frosthollow Associates and Bryan House, Berkshire District Attorney's Office, youth council co-chairs; James Brosnan, McCann Technical School, treasurer; Beth Petropulos, MountainOne, assistant treasurer; Chelsea Tyer, Neenah Paper, secretary; and David Moresi, Moresi Associates, at large.

Those receiving fiscal 2022 Workforce Impact Awards included: John Lipa of Linden Consulting, a General Dynamics retiree, 2022 Workforce Ambassador; and Teagan Far, intern at Berkshire Workforce Board from Lenox Memorial High School, 2022 Youth Ambassador. Susan St. John of Berkshire Health Systems, and Lenco Armored Vehicles of Pittsfield, were both honored as 2022 Employer of the Year.

During fiscal 2022, the Berkshire Workforce Board leveraged over $3.5 million, which assisted 800 employers, 2,800 job seekers, and 2,500 youth with their workforce needs. More than 120 organizations received labor market data from the board which helped to generate $1.6 million in new resources.

The board also voted to approve its fiscal 2023 workforce business plan. That plan can be accessed at www.MassHireBerkshire.com.