The MassHire Berkshire Workforce Board has hired Ruthann Eagen as a south county career readiness coordinator, a position that is funded by the Berkshire Taconic Community Foundation. Eagen will be responsible for assisting the Berkshire Workforce Board's youth director with coordination of career readiness systems and programming within the public school systems in southern Berkshire County. She will also assist with the development of a South County College and Career Advisory Team and individual school district teams with the goal for every student to graduate with a completed college and career plan. Eagen was previously the senior district executive for the Appalachian Trail District of the Western Massachusetts Council, Boy Scouts of America.
